Yesterday the exercises commenced with the rifle shooting. Every provision was made for the prevention of any accident, a large brick wall having been erected at the end of the shooting-alley, which prevented the glancing or further passage of the balls. There were some fifty contestants for Kænig's crown, each one taking six shots. At the close of the shooting it was decided that Alois Rick, Esq , was the victor.

By 4 o'clock a very large crowd had assembled at the Park, and a signal, consisting of three floating torpedoes, which were fired on the water consecutively, announced that the hour for the crowning of the King had arrived. All hands repaired to the pavillion, where a handseme crown of flowers was placed on the head of Mr. Rick, and he was duly proclaimed Schuetzen King, which position he subsequently sustained with great grace and dignity. A spirited address was then delivered in German by Don P. Halsey, who was greeted of a psalm, and the singing of a song by Police Justice White, who would have spoken in German but he didn't have time, Terpsichorean festivities were then inaugurated and kept up until a reasonable hour last evening, when the merrymakers dis-

RETURNED HOME .- The delegates of the Catholic Beneficial Society to the annual Convention of the State Union, which was in session at Norfolk last week, together morning, after a most pleasant sojourn in Norfolk and Portsmouth. They speak in the highest terms of the grand ovation accorded them by their brethren of the two "Cities by the Sea."

During their stay their entertainers, combining pleasure with business, brought everything into requisition to fill the intervals between the sessions of the Convention, with ment, and, from the accounts of the Richmond representatives, right well did they succeed. The first day's festivities consisted in the main with an excursion to Vue de l'Eau, on the steamer Hampton, where a pic-nic, under the auspices of the two Norfolk societies, was progressing. Here the delegates and visitors gave themselves up to the full enjoyment of the pleasures of the on to the Hustings Court. day, and returned to Norfolk late at night.

The afternoon of Tuesday, after adjournment of the Convention, was spent most delightfully in a trip to the navy-yard and Naval Hospital on board of a Government tug, the use of which was kindly tendered by Commodore T. A. Stevens, to whom the delegates and others are indebted for numethe church choirs in that city, for the benefit of the orphans. This affair was most successfully carried out, the music, both vocal and instrumental, being of the highest order Friday was occupied mainly in business but in the evening there was a most pleasant sociable at Oliver Hall, at which many of the fair ladies of both Norfolk and Portsmouth were present to greet the stranger. An elegant supper enhanced the night's entertainment, which did not conclude until sunrise next morning.

The Convention having adjourned on Friday, some of the delegates left for their homes Saturday morning, but the greater portion remained and enjoyed themselves in various ways. Two parties went in vehicles to Ocean View, about eight miles from Norfolk, where they enjoyed the pleasures of surf-bathing, and also the hospitality of Mr. Thomas Bradford, formerly of this city, who exerted himself to make such of the visitors as he met have a good time.

On Sunday the day was appropriately oberved by attendance at High Mass at St. Mary's church, and in the afternoon the Richmond boys once more took passage for home on the Old Dominion, to the officers of which, especially Captain Walker and Purser Caldwell, they are under obligations for courtesies extended while in their charge.

Too much cannot be said in praise of the handsome manner in which the strangers were generally treated. The delegates from Richmond would be glad to particularize and mention some names, but they do not wish to make invidious distinctions where everybody did their utmost. DISTRIBUTION OF PRIZES AT ST. PETER'S ACADEMY AND PAROCHIAL SCHOOL.—The first distribution of premiums to the pupils of this school took place yesterday morning at gathering of the relatives and friends of the children. Previous to the distribution a very pleasing address was made by Master Frunk Antilotti, in the course of which he referred in grateful terms to the efforts of the Bishop in providing such a school for the Catholic youth of Richmond. The address was well received and highly complimented. This was followed by the singing of a beautiful hymn with organ accompaniment.

The distribution then took place, Rev. Father Charles L. Vanquakelberge calling the names of the successful contestants and Bishop Gibbons awarding the premiums, among which were silver medals to the following boys for good conduct: First class in Parochial school, James Mackey; second class, Robert Woodson; third class, John Mitchell; fourth class, Hugh Buley; fifth class, Luke Henry Hogan; academical class, John S. Golden. Quite a number of other premiums, consisting of books, certificates, &c., were also distributed.

At the termination of the distribution a short address was made by the Rev. Bishop, in which he took occasion to refer to the labor and anxiety attending the building of the school-house, and stated that the gratification he felt at the progress made and the success attending the school was a sufficient reward for all. The school will not close until the last of the month for vacation, which will last until LEYY BROTHERS'. about the middle of September. ROLL OF HONOR AT THE RICHMOND HIGH
